THE ESCAPES

The Three Jail Breakers Keep on the Move.

Deputy Constable Hand come in today from Pearce and it is learned from him that Alvord, Stiles and Bravo John were seen by H B Newton of the Cachise and Pearce stage line, at a point about midway between the stations.

When the news was brought to Prarce and a poste formed the escapes had several hours the start of the offivers. The trail showed that the trio were beeded for the Dregoone Mts. As this is over 48 hours since, it is reasonable to suppose that they continued without stepping and are either across the line or st a safe distance where capture will not be an ea y matter.
